usual gathering of teachers in Miss G

Through the efforts of our capable superintendent and the school board, a long awaited event, the ground breaking ceremony for the high school, took place last fall. Desperately in need of a new school, the students of RHS are looking forward with joy to attending classes in the spacious rooms of the new building.

The chief of the clan is, of course, our district superintendent, Mr. John Glann. Upon him fall all the problems and decisions of the supervision of the six schools of District 17. Mrs. Ringer, his secretary, spends a good deal of time in keeping up the district's records and correspondence.

Our new business manager, Mr. Donald Sleeper is responsible for the business and financial management of the school district. Assisting him with this difficult task is his efficient secretary, Mrs. Ferguson.

Mr. Ray Warren, our understanding principal, attends to our class schedules, confers with us about our curriculum problems, and on the noon of January 23, "Ray" was seen gleefully throwing snowballs at some of the braver students.

New on the staff is co-ordinator, Mr. Beeler, who works with the teachers in arranging their curriculum.

Much of the time of Miss Cowling, Girls' Advisor and head of the English department, is spent in administering I. Q. tests and assisting students with their vocational problems. Her suggestions and help have been responsible for the success of many of our graduates.

Another hard working advisor is Mr. John Driscoll, Boys' Advisor and head basketball coach. He counsels with the boys on their problems and has the difficult task of keeping order in the halls.

Way back in September, the Student Council began its work under the capable leadership of Gordon Fee. Assisting him was his efficient staff: Lois Grady, vice-president; Beverly Gullstein, secretary; Myrna Berg, treasurer; Dorothy Halberg, fire-chief; and Patt Knott, corresponding secretary.

Projects such as bringing the school out of debt, having more and better assemblies, ways of promoting pep at games, the point system, the sale of ASB tickets, and many other problems were thrashed out by the Student Body officers and representatives, supervised by Mr. Driscoll.

Gordon's gavel of authority was wielded wisely throughout the year. Through his personality and capability he has made a place for himself in the heart of every Roosevelt student. A leader not only in his presidency, but in sports and scholastic standing as well, Gordon has proven to be one of the really outstanding students to ever graduate from RHS.

Lois showed her ability to handle her office in many ways. One of her most outstanding successes was the point system which she completely revamped.

Beverly Gullstein kept neat and accurate minutes of the council meetings all year long. Orchids to you, Bev, for a job well done.

Myrna worked many long hours each week helping Miss Bradshaw keep our debits and credits straight. We couldn't have elected a more competent and industrious treasurer.

Added to the duties of fire-chief this year were those of pep-promoter. Dort took charge of pep assemblies and promoted school spirit in many ways. The victorious record of our teams proves her work was well done.

The signature of Patt Knott, Corresponding Secretary, became a familiar sight to many local clubs and out of town schools as she carried on the council's correspondence with care and proficiency.

startin' their highland fling

Dizzy from the mad whirl of their first year in senior high, the Sophomores can be proud of their many outstanding achievements.

They first made themselves known by taking top honors in the Homecoming parade. Another "first" for this lively class was Sophomore Sunday. Again the annual Sophomore night was attended and enjoyed by parents and students.

"The Spirit of Old Glory Today" was depicted in the Armistice Day assembly, which was co-sponsored by the American Association of University Women.

Their Mardi Gras was carried out with a Chinese atmosphere. King and queen reigning over this gala event were Gene Middleton and Beryle Evenson with Dale Petersen and Coleen Grady as the royal duke and duchess.

This year the Sophomores were ably led by Jim Cheatham, president; Dale Petersen, vice-president; and Teddy Mattson, secretary.

Class advisors were Miss Sue Harding and Miss Marjory Collard, who worked closely with the class to make this year a great success.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind?"

As the 1951-52 term closes we find ourselves lookin' back at our long acquaintance with the class of '52, and we deem it certain neither it, nor its deeds will ever "be forgot."

As freshmen they transformed the old gym into a spring garden with the annual frosh May Dance. "Mardi Gras" was the cry, when as sophomores they brought the spirit of old New Orleans to RHS, complete with confetti and costumes, bringing fun and frolic to all. Sophomore Night was bigger and better than ever when over 100 parents attended. As juniors their carnival, "Fiesta Feliz," caught students and faculty alike eating chili out of paper cups and spending their pennies, nickels, and dimes on the various concessions. That year their big event was the Junior Prom. Depicting the dunes of Saudi-Arabia, "Desert Song" was realistic down to the last detail, with a genuine imported palm tree for the centerpiece. Reigning as King and Queen were Ogden Pier-

doin' their best for us

This year's football team, tutored by Bill Madden and his assistant, Jim Sulenes, was one of the most successful in recent years at RHS.

Outstanding on this year's team were seniors, Floyd Walker, Mel Easterly and Larry Scoles, who were voted to be on the all-league second team, and senior Art Moore and junior Arlen McDonald, who received honorable mention.

Walker and McDonald led in scoring with 43 and 36 points respectively. Easterly won the Sportsmanship Trophy and Scoles was the Inspirational Award winner. Moore, for his fine leadership, was voted Honorary Captain by his teammates.

Others who played excellent ball all season were seniors Johnny Kidd, Bill Wallace, Joe Sommers, and sophomore, Buddy "The Toe" Allen, place kick specialist.

Because of a change in the athletic program this year, the sophomores had a team of their own called the Rangers. Coached by Bill Shore, the Rangers came out of the season with three wins, two losses, and one tie.

Ending the season with a 25-2 record the Roughriders of 1952, coached by John Driscoll, proved to be the greatest team in RHS history.

This year's team started strong and swept through their first nineteen games before being defeated by the University of Washington Frosh. After taking the district championship, they entered the state tournament as co-favorites. Ellensburg defeated them in the first game. However, they went on to win the next three to capture fifth place.

Ken Fuhrer attained the highest of honors this year by being selected to the all-state team.

Gordon Fee, co-captain, was selected with Ken on the all-conference team. Jim McFadden, co-captain, and Dick Brown were chosen on the second team. Dick also received the KONP Sportsmanship trophy for his inspirational playing.

Two unsung heroes, who played exceptional ball all season, were Bob Partridge and Arlen McDonald.

The Sophomore team, coached by Bill Madden, took first place in the "B" team league with a 9-3 record.

"Have ye heard what a bonny success the Junior Carnival was?" Decorated in a rural atmosphere, "County Fair" was enjoyed by students, faculty, and parents.

This year was one long line of successes for the class of '53. Early in the year their pep assembly, featuring "Feminine Football," had the audience roaring with laughter.

On the more serious side was their Lincoln-Washington assembly which made us all think a wee bit more about our two famous presidents.

Couples entering the new gym on March 29 found themselves in a "Dark Garden," surrounded by classic marble statues and dark blossoms. Colored spotlights added the finishing touch. King and Queen were Ron Larson and Sigrid Wicklander, attended by Duke and Duchess, Al Luedke and Nancy Corfee.

Despite his activity in sports, Class President Arlen McDonald devoted much time and hard work on his task of solving class problems and promoting class activities. Assisting him were Duane Stanard, vice-president, and Jean Burditt, secretary Their cheerful advisors were Miss Muriel Glasson and Mr. Dwight Kramer.

Jean Cogburn
Girls' Club President

The Girls' Club added two new features to their busy program this year. One, a Hat Day, with prizes for the outstanding hats, and the other, the election of a Girl of the Month for each month of the school year. This title gives credit to girls in our school who are outstanding in school, church, and community. These proved to be such successful projects that we hope they will be carried out as traditions in the future.

Inspired by the ever capable guidance of Miss Cowling and the leadership of the president, Jean Cogburn, the girls went to even greater lengths to make the 1951-52 year stand out as one of the most successful that the RHS Girls' Club has ever known.

The three term cabinets, each carrying on their responsibilities for three months, worked out their problems and fulfilled their duties with enthusiasm and capability.

As an opportunity for the girls to enlarge on their future plans, a vocational conference was held on March 3. Carole Phifer and Patt Knott proved to be very competent chairmen as this activity turned out to be not only educational but also enjoyable.

The Senior Girls' Tea, held for the girls and their mothers, was under the leadership of the president elected for the coming year.

Through hard work and much planning during the summer, editor-in-chief, PAT NELSON, not only came up with good ideas but carried them out thoroughly. Helping Pat carry out those ideas and expounding on her own was NANCY McLAUGHLIN, assistant editor.

"Ahh you-all list'nin'?" That was our jolly and capable advisor, MRS. THYRA MIDDLETON, shouting in her familiar Southern drawl. Mrs. Middleton spent a great deal of mental anguish watching deadlines approach and pass. Without her guidance and forbearance the TUM TUM could never have been produced.

GORDON FEE was our cheerful and brilliant business manager.

No one would trade jobs with LOIS GRADY junior-senior editor, who had the task of persuading the seniors and juniors to pay for their pictures. Lois also was the staff's secretary.

PATT KNOTT, copy editor, had the tiring task of checking and rearranging the articles that go into this book.

The clever art work throughout the TUM TUM is the product of our capable art editor,

"Smile!" is the word MARILYN HALBERG had to say many times a week. As the staff photographer she worked many long hours on perfecting pictures for the TUM TUM. Her industrious assistant, GEORGIA TINKHAM, was an all around asset to the staff.

The little girl putting exhausting hours of hard work on the mounting of pictures was BEVERLY GULLSTEIN. Bev could be found in room 205 before, during, and after school bent over the arduous task of measuring and cutting the pictures. Learning the ropes for next year's work is DONNA HEFLEY, Bev's able assistant.

CAROL LOGHRY had the job of getting the business men of Port Angeles to put their ads in our annual.

RICH SHIDELER was responsible for the surging sales.

The pretty blond who had the tedious task of identifying all the students in pictures was SHIRLEY SETHER, identification editor.

The high ranking talent and initiative of the Masque and Dagger Club was illustrated in one of the best assemblies of the year, a one act radio drama, sponsored by Food and the Friendly Finance Company. Dramatic Club has fun with new members.

The annual dramatic club initiation is always a source of discussion and excitement around the school. This year the club outdid itself in subjecting the new members to a strenuous, but hilarious, ordeal of paint smearing and sea-weed. A formal dinner initiation was held for them at a later date. The latter was effectively carried out with a beautiful candlelight ceremony.

Another project of the club was sponsoring the Teddy Guide, our school telephone directory. This was an immediate success and over five hundred copies were sold to students and teachers.

Directors of all these activities were Jack Rice, president; Scooter Chapman, vice-president; Marilyn Heckman, secretary-treasurer, and Georgia Tinkham, scribe.

voicin' their ayes and nays

If you had walked by Mr. Smith's speech class during the past year, you would have probably heard this year's debate question—"Resolved That All American People Should Be Subject to Conscription For Essential Services In Time Of War"—being hotly argued and refuted by the affirmative and negative.

Perhaps you may have caught the phrase "Keeping Washington Green" which was the District title of the State Resources Contest, one of the most coveted speech contests of the year.

The speech class went to almost every part of the state, giving debates, orations, interpretative readings and participating in extemp speaking.

This season's schedule included debates with Port Townsend, Seattle Prep and the three Kitsap schools.

The more important tournaments were held at (1) Seattle University, (2) a three day tournament at College of Puget Sound, and the (3) State College of Washington. In the district tournament Port Angeles entered six teams, placing first through sixth respectively, taking all honors.

Jim Cheatham, president; Miss Harding, advisor; Teddy Mattson, secretary; Dale Petersen, vice-president.

Dizzy from the mad whirl of their first year in senior high, the Sophomores can be proud of their many outstanding achievements.

They first made themselves known by taking top honors in the Homecoming parade. Another "first" for this lively class was Sophomore Sunday. Again the annual Sophomore night was attended and enjoyed by parents and students.

"The Spirit of Old Glory Today" was depicted in the Armistice Day assembly, which was co-sponsored by the American Association of University Women.

Their Mardi Gras was carried out with a Chinese atmosphere. King and queen reigning over this gala event were Gene Middleton and Beryle Evenson with Dale Petersen and Coleen Grady as the royal duke and duchess.

This year the Sophomores were ably led by Jim Cheatham, president; Dale Petersen, vice-president; and Teddy Mattson, secretary.

Class advisors were Miss Sue Harding and Miss Marjory Collard, who worked closely with the class to make this year a great success.

doin' their best for us

This year's football team, tutored by Bill Madden and his assistant, Jim Sulenes, was one of the most successful in recent years at RHS.

Outstanding on this year's team were seniors, Floyd Walker, Mel Easterly and Larry Scoles, who were voted to be on the all-league second team, and senior Art Moore and junior Arlen McDonald, who received honorable mention.

Walker and McDonald led in scoring with 43 and 36 points respectively. Easterly won the Sportsmanship Trophy and Scoles was the Inspirational Award winner. Moore, for his fine leadership, was voted Honorary Captain by his teammates.

Others who played excellent ball all season were seniors Johnny Kidd, Bill Wallace, Joe Sommers, and sophomore, Buddy "The Toe" Allen, place kick specialist.

Because of a change in the athletic program this year, the sophomores had a team of their own called the Rangers. Coached by Bill Shore, the Rangers came out of the season with three wins, two losses, and one tie.

This year found the G. A. A. springin' into action under the clever guidance of its president, Betty Tatom. Assisting her in her many duties were Nancy McLaughlin, vice-president, and Pat Dotson, secretary-treasurer. As advisor of these lively lasses, Miss Margaret O'Neill did much to help the girls attain their goals, good health and good sportsmanship.

Rising faithfully at the break of dawn, these feminine athletes received their scratches, bruises and sore muscles at their early morning turnouts. The four major sports are volleyball, basketball, speedball, and baseball. In addition to these top four, many girls participate in ping-pong, badminton, archery, and various other minor sports.

All this is not without reward. Any girl who turns out for the four major sports is entitled to a green chevron. The G.A.A.ers also receive points for playing in the various tournaments, having doctor and dental examinations, hiking, skating, skiing, swimming and many other activities. points, 3 block letter A; and 300 points, a star.

This year the Girls' Lettermen's Club, consisting of girls who have received their letters, was reactivated. They sponsored a pep dance, "Lettermen's Leap," to bring money to the G.A.A. treasury.

The days preceding the annual Inspirational Award Banquet were filled with suspense and overflowing with excitement. The climax of the dinner was the announcement by Miss O'Neill of the Inspirational Award Winner. This senior girl is chosen by the girls for her outstanding ability and sportsmanship. This year Nancy McLaughlin, vice-president of the club, rightly and undisputedly was the winner of this most coveted award.

One of the highlights of this year's sports program was the playday, which was attended by girls from five neighboring schools. Through the hard work of the general chairman, Lois Grady, and her committees, this play day will go down as one of the most successful events ever held at RHS.

one of the most successful that the RHS Girls' Club has ever known.

The three term cabinets, each carrying on their responsibilities for three months, worked out their problems and fulfilled their duties with enthusiasm and capability.

As an opportunity for the girls to enlarge on their future plans, a vocational conference was held on March 3. Carole Phifer and Patt Knott proved to be very competent chairmen as this activity turned out to be not only educational but also enjoyable.

The Senior Girls' Tea, held for the girls and their mothers, was under the leadership of the president elected for the coming year.

Through hard work and much planning during the summer, editor-in-chief, PAT NELSON, not only came up with good ideas but carried them out thoroughly. Helping Pat carry out those ideas and expounding on her own was NANCY McLAUGHLIN, assistant editor.

"Ahh you-all list'nin'?" That was our jolly and capable advisor, MRS. THYRA MIDDLETON, shouting in her familiar Southern drawl. Mrs. Middleton spent a great deal of mental anguish watching deadlines approach and pass. Without her guidance and forbearance the TUM TUM could never have been produced.

GORDON FEE was our cheerful and brilliant business manager.

No one would trade jobs with LOIS GRADY junior-senior editor, who had the task of persuading the seniors and juniors to pay for their pictures. Lois also was the staff's secretary.

PATT KNOTT, copy editor, had the tiring task of checking and rearranging the articles that go into this book.

The clever art work throughout the TUM TUM is the product of our capable art editor,

EARL KUNKEL, assisted by DOROTHY LEWMAN.

"Smile!" is the word MARILYN HALBERG had to say many times a week. As the staff photographer she worked many long hours on perfecting pictures for the TUM TUM. Her industrious assistant, GEORGIA TINKHAM, was an all around asset to the staff.

The little girl putting exhausting hours of hard work on the mounting of pictures was BEVERLY GULLSTEIN. Bev could be found in room 205 before, during, and after school bent over the arduous task of measuring and cutting the pictures. Learning the ropes for next year's work is DONNA HEFLEY, Bev's able assistant.

CAROL LOGHRY had the job of getting the business men of Port Angeles to put their ads in our annual.

RICH SHIDELER was responsible for the surging sales.

The pretty blond who had the tedious task of identifying all the students in pictures was SHIRLEY SETHER, identification editor.
